

Food Chain Avengers

Comic Book Discussion Guide

❖ Before you read the comic book, in the space provided, write down a few words that come to mind when you think of the food system

❖ What issues and injustices of the food system that were depicted in the comic book were most surprising to you and why?

❖ Do you think the issues presented by each character are mutually exclusive? Or do you think there is a way to solve multiple issues within the food system at once?

❖ What comic book character did you feel you could relate to the most? Have you ever experienced similar discrimination or injustice in your own life?

“One voice can shout into the wind all day and nothing will come of it. But if you get enough voices to call out in unison you can shout down mountains of injustice”
